57) against this order an appeal was preferred by Raghupathia to this office on 5.9.93 stating that while his claim had already been established as was evident from the decisions noted in the margin above and from the fact that in accordance with the decree the said land together with the cost of litigation were made over to him, it was unjust to refer him to the Civil Courts again on the plea that the former suit was only for mesne and that seizure & the Main Land attached to the ——— Shanbhogueship & Nemm Yeccalikè

(6) On 2-12-93 Raghupathiah submitted a petn to this office requesting that the Dy Commr might be ordered to have the produce of his Shanbhogue Inam lands kept in deposit pending the disposal of his appeal to this office. This was also forwarded to the Dy Commr:

vide Abstract of 2-12-93 S. No 7 File 3.

(7) In letter No 1389 of 23rd May '94 the Dy Commr stated as follows:—

× vide Dy Commr Ret 888 of 7-12-93 S. No 8 File 3.

× Not in the records. This is taken from the office note of 2-10-'96.

"The Asst Collr rejected the petr's application and directed him to obtain possession of the "Inams" by a regular suit if he liked to do so. Against this order the petr appealed to the Divisional officer and to me. But I declined to interfere, as the Shanbhogue Inams having been enfranchised are subject to Court in the Civil Court. I now find that the Shanbhogue Inams in Mestal Taluk have not been enfranchised yet and therefore my above order is not right. If the records are returned to me I shall dispose of the matter on its merits."

(1) The records were returned × vide No. 5336/P.F. 39-94 Dy. 19-6-94 S. No 14 File B. as desired for a revision of the 2nd Board Proceedings stating that Shanbhogue Service Inams have not been enfranchised in this Province anywhere.

(2) This docket was forwarded, vide Memo No. 3153 Dy. 1-3-95 S. No 26 of File. to the 2nd Gl. Asst Commr. for report on the following points:—

(1) How is the petr entitled to a share in the Shanbhogue emoluments?
(2) What are the Shanbhogue Inams?
(3) By whom are they enjoyed and to what extent and on what right.
(4) What are the lands in dispute.
(5) What is the dispute and between whom.
(6) How do the records bear out the several contentions.
(7) What does the decree show. Is it in force.

(3) On 16-3-95 the 2nd Gl. Asst Commr. called for a similar report from the Amildar, who on 20-6-95 submitted the following report in reply to the several points noted:—

(1) As the petr. Ranjugiattiah was a Hereditary Shanbhogue of Amanikere in 1870 a decree was granted entitling him to half hisse of the Inam lands. He says that according the produce of the lands must be ordered to be given to him by those who are in possession of the same. It is understood that he the was enjoying the produce accordingly.

(2) The service Inam is wet land S. No 4 under Amaikere.

(3) These lands measuring A 2-35 G and assessed at Rs 17 are in the enjoyment of Hanumayya, Shan-bhogue Gumastha.

(4) wet land S. No 4.

(5) The dispute is for half piece of the Inam lands on the plea that petr is maj nieceder of the Shanbhogue Hanumayya and is between the former Upstream Sathanayya and Rajagopathiah.

(6) In accordance with Divisional order No 129 dy 20-7-93 to the effect that the petn was rejected as the petr Rajagopathiah had to establish his Shanbhogue right, prior to his claiming the land and not on Exit to that effect should be given to petr, an Exit was given to petr. As desired by the Registerdar Subba-rayappa his adopted son Chandrayya has been registered as Halikudar and Hanumayya appointed Gumastha.

(7) The decree is not forthcoming in the records.

(8) Rajagopathiah submitted two Seemen petns regarding the Inam lands. The latter of these was forwarded to the Dy Commr with reference this office No 5336 / P.F. 39-94 dy 19-7-94 with a request that the Dy Commr's decision on the merits may be communicated to petr.

Shanbhoga of Ariéal Doddaliere; that half the lands which were made over to him in accordance with the said decree passed out of his possession when he was deprived of his Shanbhogaie; that no order was issued to him by Govt: directing that the said lands which were in his possession should be relinquished; that as he was deprived of the Shanbhoga so he was deprived of the lands also in Sept. 1811; that since then he has been submitting petitions regarding his appointment; that if he is restored to office he is confident of getting back the whole of the lands;
(2) that he has not got the Shara with him; that the required inform -ation should be obtained from the Dist.; that what was stated in the Amildars report might be true;

(3) that he did not know whether it was the Shanbhogue Gurusitta Venkanagya or some one else that was in the enjoyment of the lands; that he did not also know whether the whole or a part of the lands were being enjoyed;
(4) that the dispute was regarding the Inam lands;
(5) that orders should be issued restoring his Shanbhogue to him;
(6) that he was deprived of office on insufficient grounds; that even if the Shanbhogue were not restored to him, half the Inam lands of the Shanbhogue should be restored to him;

that

that half the said lands being enjoyed by the members of his family since the time of his father and that the profits of those years should be given to him.

(67) On 21.10.97 Rajagopalachari submitted a petn to Govt praying that the case may be disposed of by Govt and that pending the disposal of the appeal the produce of the lands might be ordered to be kept in reserve.

This petn was also forwarded to the Dy Commr.

(68) On 7.1.87 Rajagopalachari submitted a petn stating that Subbaraya had committed very grave offences and did not deserve reinstatement and that both Subbaraya and his elder brother Ramayya had no children; and prayed that the Shanbhogue of Varamahalakshmipuram might be registered in his name and that if this could not be done, the same might be registered in the name of his son Ramanatha.

This petn was returned for submission through the Dy Commr:

(69) On 8.11.87 Rajagopalachari submitted a petn to the Dewan appealing against the Dy Commrs Order Nos 167 dy 19-4-87 and 197 dy 21-10-87 (N.B. Both these are not forthcoming in the records) and praying that on a perusal of Order No 2004 dy 25-6-74 he may be restored to the Shanbhogue of the

In the Dycomm^r's report it is stated that the respt Raghupatanya first appealed in 1892 against the order of dismissal passed in 1877. The records in this office (vide Title A) show that this statement is unfounded. It is owing to the confused state of the records referred to in Dycomm^r's letter no 499 T 19/10/93 (serial no 4 of Feb B).

To this state of the records must also be ascribed the strange error of the Dycomm^r in which he does not enter fully into the claims advanced by the respts to ½ the Jeroda Inam lands of Sidhosakote & Doddakere Shanbogs.

The following points seem to be fairly clear.

The four villages Sidhosakote, Doddakere, Nosenur & Gollahalli, the 1st & two Seemes & have formed one charge & the 3rd & 4th villages another charge since 1878.

decides the succession to the Shamboji Office for Horakote & Dodda Ainanth

As regards the 2nd claim, it appears from the certified copies of the Asst Supt's & the Supt's Judgments of 1870 the originals are not forthcoming — that the 2nd petr is a hereditary of the Shamboji Office of the 2 villages and its perquisites.

Since the passing of these Judgments, the Potapi Rules having the force of law — were passed in 1874 and declare that the cash emoluments of the office are payable only to the officiator & that the Official Land Commissioner will remain in the possession of the sharers who may at present hold it" (vide Sec^ns XXXVII & XXVIII)

Now the 1st pet^r asserts that he was placed in possession of ½ the Service Inam Lands in pursuance of the decree of 1870 & that he ~~was~~ was dispossessed of them in 1877 when he was dismissed
This assertion is not credible as the Octroi Rules of 1874 do not authorize dispossession Service Inam Lands & as the records show that the local authorities understand the 1st pet^r to ask for the execution of the decree of 1870
The Dy Comm^r who stated in 1894 the case would be disposed of on the merits has however dismissed the whole claim as time-barred. He has not found whether as a matter fact the 1st pet^r was in possession of ½ the Service Inam Lands between 1870 & 1877
and if so whether he was dispossessed of them in 1877

In 1870 one Subbaya was the Shambog of Addhosakote & Doddakere, his elder brother Ramaya was the Shambog of Vosenur & the 3rd pet^{n} Raghupathi was the Shamboy of Gollahalli

In the years 1871 & 1872 Subbaya & Ramaya were dismissed for certain alleged irregularities in the Collection Book. Hereupon Commissioner interfered in appeal (Made a Report from the Register Book in the Office)
The local authorities intended to appoint the ~~Head~~ Sister's son of Subbaroya in succession but the 3rd pet^{n} (Raghupaiaya) represented that he was the nearest heir of the dismissed Shambogs & was appointed Shambogue for the ~~Head~~ Villages in question (in addition to that of Gollahalli) in June 1874 on his probation

In 1877 the 3rd pet^{n} was dismissed by the Dy Comm^{r} of the ~~Head~~ 21 Villages for various offences. Both the Comm^{r} & the Chief Comm^{r} declined to interfere (Serial No 78 A file of the Office)
for the discharge of the Shamboys duties, one Surappa was (7

appointed gumasta for the two villages Sadhosakote & Doddakere, while the Shambogue of Bommandahalli was asked to look after the duties of Nosenur Gollahalli

This was sanctioned as a temporary arrangement liable to be revised at the Survey settlement.

In 1882 the Dewan directed upon the representation of Subbaraya, the dismissed Shanbog of Sadhosakote & Doddakere, that the appointment of Ramappa should be limited to 10 years after which the claims of Subbaraya's heirs should be considered

In 1887 the above proceedings were given effect to by registering Ramachendra adopted son of Subbaraya as the Shanbog of the 2 villages.

As regards the shamboge of the
~~the~~ Village Nos 2 & Gollahalli, the Dy Commr in his order d 24/6/91 directed the Registry of Ramanath pura ~~the~~ pet^r as shamboge & the discharge of duties by a journalā during the minority of the Registerdar

The pet^rs now claim

(1) That Ramanath should be registered as the shamboge Pujari Basakole & Doddathamme

(2) That - 1/2 the Serie Inam (land) attached to the shamboge Mie mentioned should be placed in possession of the pet^r urged by the 2nd pet^r as guardian of Ramanath (though it is not clear how 2nd pet^r can be guardian while the father is living) urged by the 4th pet^r as hereditary to the shamboge

The grounds for the 4th claim are that the Dy Commr's order of 24/6/91 extended to all the four villages while effect was given only as regards 2 villages

This claim is abandoned as the 3rd had also ago

Abstract:

Appeal against the decision of Commissioner's order, in 56, dated 15th September 1893, refusing him to file a suit in the Civil Courts for the recovery of his half-share in the Ramdurg Chavadi Ramdurg office of Dodkere, Khanapur Taluk, on the grounds that his claim is confirmed in the decision passed by Assistant Superintendent Rangoon Dt.

~~Arracan~~ in the Revenue Original No. 7 of of 1870 & in the decision passed by the Superintendent Tenasserim Division in the Special Appeal Suit No. 1 of 1870 pp. 71 that while his suit is confirmed, it is unjust to restrain to go to the Civil Court again on the ground that the former suit is only for Rs. 1000; that in the decree of the above Court, it is ordered that the costs should be borne by the respondent party which also proves the claim; & that no special orders were noted when the Revenue & Judicial Assistant Commissioners
the above decision, were restored, ~~to~~ while they ask special orders for restoring the Summonds &c.

Prays for an order to the Deputy Commissioner for the restoration of the said Summonds.

Ramchendraiya without bringing either the notice of Government or giving information to the appellants - appointing one Appajappa, the brother, of the deceased Ramchandraiya as Sunnakia - that Ramamma the appellant, put forward her claims in favour of her minor son Rama Murti for Shanbhogue that in 1889 - that the respondents managed to secure, somehow the registry in the name of Sunnakia Appajappa in 1891 - that the appellants appearing for the office, they were informed by the Amildar that Appajappa was appointed as Shanbhog for maintain-ing the wife of deceased Ramaiya - that Ramaiya's wife died in Feb 1893.

but the matter is still pending in appeal before the District Authorities in spite of your endorsement Nos 3002 of 18-5-95 & 3120 of 7/96 that they have references to prove that the appellants are claimants for a moiety of hak - the grounds of appeal are:- (1) that Ramaiya has no title, (2) that he is not eligible for the office under the authority of the Chief Comm's Circular, Even though he had some- (3) that under the circumstances of Ramaiya's dismissal even his grandsons are not competent for the office - (4) & that the present office holder Appajappa is a perfect stranger and as such is not entitled to the Shanbhagee hak of Sidi Hosakote, was convicted of theft in a criminal case in 1877-78 and the Amildar of Anekal recommended his dismissal from the office (vide report No. 465 of the 25th July 1877). The Shanbhog was dismissed by the then 1st General Asstt Commissioner, Mr. W. Porteous, on the 15th August 1877, as per order No. 507, and the Amildar was asked to appoint a successor. The Amildar reported that there were several claimants, all of whom were entangled in some way or the other and so recommended that the shanbhogi may be registered in the name of Lakshman Rao, son-in-law of Subrayappa, brother of Raghupat-ayya for the villages of Sidi Hosakote and Anani Doddakere, and in the name of Rama murti, grandson of Nanjamma, wife of a deceased uncle of Raghupatayya, for the village of Nosemur Gollahally. It was finally decided that Nanjamma had claims to only Nosemur Gollahally the shanbhogi of which village was registered in the name of her grandson at her request (vide order No. 230 of the 30th June 1891).

3. The order of dismissal of Raghupatayya was passed in 1877 and the records show that no first appeal against this order was made in November 1892. The case was under enquiry, but petitions were received from both Raghupatayya and Nanjamma, setting forth their claims to the lands attached to the Shanbhogi. Raghupatayya was informed by the Amildar, as per instructions

The petitioners submit an amended petition in continuation of their appeal petitions of 4-1-98, 30-11-97, 4-1-9

Stating

(1) That the subject of dispute is in t
the Shanbhogues of Dodakere Amani Kad Siddi Hosakotte, and Kasavanur,

(2) That the 2nd Counter pet^r is looking after the duties of the Shanbhogue of Kas and the 1st is discharging as Shanbhog of t rest,

(3) That the I Counter petitioner a Shanb & the Amk is no longer entitled to hold the office,

That the adoption pleaded by the I Counter petitioner is fictitious and not true

That the I Counter petitioner's predecessor in title forfeited his stink by his Contract and which was taken away from during the Chief Comr's time,

That the orders obtained subsequently seem to have been obtained without proper enquiry,

That the 2nd Petitioner was appointed to perform the duties after the dismissal of Subraya

That the Complaints of theft & misappropriation alleged against him were preferred by Subraya himself, of which the former related to the lopping of the branches of a tree which belonged to the 2nd Petr: and that the latter was purely imaginary,

That a Sirkar Gumasta worked for 10 years when the 2nd Counter petr & Subraya were both deprived of their offices,

That the 1st Counter petr: got into office by means of misrepresentation,

That the Nasamoor Shanbhogue was looked after by Ramaya till 1874 & 76 when he died, when he was dismissed, that a Gumasta was appointed by Govt for that office who worked till 1887, that the widow of Ramaya died in 1893, leaving no issue,

That the petitioners are the heirs of the deceased Ramaya on the maternal side

That the 2nd Counter Petr is a stranger not related to the deceased

That the Stink of the petitioners is established by the decree in their favour in Suit No 46/1857 of the of the 2nd Asst Commissioner in his endorsement No. 1144 of the 24th August 1892, that as his appeal was time-barred, it could not be admitted. The 2nd Asstt Commissioner of the district further forwarded the report of the Amildar of the Sirsi Taluk (No. 981 of the 20th June 1895), stating that the lands in question are service inam lands and Raghupatayya lost claim to them when he lost the office also.

4. As the appeal of Raghu-patayya was time-barred, he was informed of it in this office endorse-ment No. 1260 of the 21st November 1892, that nothing can be done at present and that if his dismissal was wrong, he ought to have appealed then and there.

Petition No. 1033, dated 3rd December 1898, filed by the Advocate for the appellants and specifying the causes of action in this case.

The facts of the case are as follows :—

Prior to 1873, Subbaraya, father of the 1st respondent, was the shanbhog of Sidihoskote and Doddamanikere (constituting a single charge) and Raghupataiya, the 2nd appellant, was the shanbhog of Gollahalli or Nosenur Gollahalli as it is otherwise called. In 1873, Subbaraya, who had been previously punished for several irregularities, was dismissed for dishonestly tampering with and altering certain entries in the khirdi. In 1874, Raghupataiya, who possessed a half share in the shanbhogi hak, was appointed as shanbhog of the two villages of Sidihoskote and Doddamanikere, on probation, in addition to his own village of Gollahalli. In 1877, he was dismissed from the shanbhogi of all the three villages for various offences including one of theft. One Surappa, a stranger to the hakdar family, was appointed as shanbhog of Sidihoskote and Doddamanikere, while the shanbhog of Bommandahalli named Nanjundaiya was appointed as shanbhog of Gollahalli as a temporary measure.

2. In their Proceedings No. 305—13, dated 29th April 1882, the Government, on the representation of Subbaraya, the dismissed shanbhog, limited the appointment of Surappa for a period of 10 years, and directed that the claims of Subbaraya's heirs should be considered at the end of that period. In Proceedings No. 1508—Camp, dated 13th October 1887, the Government, on the further representation of Subbaraya, directed that Ramachandraiya, his adopted son, should be registered as the hakdar shanbhog of the said two villages.

3. In 1890, Nanjamma, widow of Ramabhadraiya, Raghupataiya's paternal uncle, represented to the Deputy Commissioner, that she was the hakdar to the shanbhogi of the three villages (Sidihoskote, Amanikere and Gollahalli) and that the same might be registered in the name of Ramamurti, son of Raghupataiya. In June 1891, the Deputy Commissioner directed that Ramamurti should be registered as the hakdar shanbhog of Gollahalli alone, and Nanjamma's subsequent petitions claiming the registry of the other two villages were rejected.

4. In 1893, the 2nd appellant, the said Raghupataiya, claimed half the official lands attached to the shanbhogi of Sidihoskote and Amanikere and was referred by the Deputy Commissioner to a regular suit, on the ground that the lands had been enfranchised. On appeal the case was remanded to the Deputy Commissioner for disposal on the merits, the Deputy Commissioner having subsequently admitted that the lands had not been enfranchised. The Deputy Commissioner passed a revised order in November 1897 to the effect that the 2nd appellant's dismissal took place in 1877, and that his appeal was out of time by nearly 20 years. In his report to Government, the Deputy Commissioner states that the 2nd appellant must be considered to have lost all right to the lands when he was dismissed from the office.

Petition, dated 1st August 1899.

5. Nanjamma appears to have urged, in 1893, her claim to the shanbhogi of Nosenur on the ground that Ramaiya, the hakdar shanbhog, who was dismissed in 1871, died childless, that the present registerdar, Appajaiya (2nd respondent), was not the adopted son of Ramaiya and that she was a nearer heir.

6. In their appeal petitions to Government, the appellants urge that the adoptions set up by the respondents are false, and that they are therefore the proper hakdars to the shanbhogi of the villages held by the respondents.

No. 1092-99—P. F. 39-94, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST AUGUST 1899.

ORDER THEREON.—The Government see no sufficient grounds to interfere on behalf of the appellants at this lapse of time. The adoption of 1st respondent having been recognised by Government so far back as 1887 and acted upon by the registry of his name as hakdar, the objection now urged cannot be entertained. Equally untenable is the contention as regards the alleged adoption of 2nd respondent. The claim to the official lands, which are in possession and enjoyment of respondents as sharers in the shanbhogi, is inadmissible under Potgi Rules 27 and 28. Out of the three charges in dispute, the 1st appellant got one and the respondents got the other two. It is not shown that the latter have no hak to the two charges given to them. The appeal to Government is, therefore, dismissed.

in possession of the said Shankhoji Vide '77; That the Dy Commr: passed order no 206 & 22.6.91 directing the ~~Asstant~~ ~~Asst~~ Registry of the Shankhoji Vide in the name of the 1st Appellant; That he has submitted several petitions bringing to notice the fact that the taluk authorities, in spite of the said order, have delivered possession of the inams of only 2 of the villages & those of the 3 remaining villages have been given over the 1st & 2nd Respondents; that they have been given endorsements directing that nothing can be done in the matter &c; that the 1st Respondent was not adopted by the deceased Ramabhadraiya; that the 2nd Respdt.
has not been adopted by any; that they are ready to prove that the Respdts:
~~Can~~ have no claim to the office;
and pray that the inams in the 3 villages may be ordered to be made over to appellants.
